2. Who can I send money to with Zelle?

You can send money to friends, family and people you know². We recommend you ask people to enroll with Zelle before you send them money – this will help them get your payment more quickly¹.

Since money is sent directly from your bank account to another person's bank account within minutes¹, it's important to only send money to people you trust, and always ensure you've used the correct email address or U.S. mobile number. Zelle should not be used to send money to people you don't know or to purchase goods.

5. What types of payments can I make with Zelle?

Zelle is a great way to send money to family, friends, and people you are familiar with such as your personal trainer, babysitter or neighbor².

Since money is sent directly from your bank account to another person's bank account within minutes¹, Zelle should not be used to send money to people you don't know or trust.

Zelle should not be used for the purchase of goods. Neither Zelle nor Renasant Bank offer a protection program if you do not receive what you paid for or the item you receive is not as described or as you expected.

6. Are there any fees to send money using Zelle?

Renasant Bank does not charge any fees to use *Zelle*³.

7. How do I get started?

It's easy – Zelle is already available within Renasant Bank's mobile banking app! Check our app and follow a few simple steps to enroll with Zelle today. We recommend you enroll before someone sends you money – this will help you get your first payment faster.

You can find a full list of participating banks and credit unions live with Zelle here.

If your recipient's bank isn't on the list, don't worry! The network of participating financial institutions is always growing, and your recipient can still use Zelle by downloading the Zelle app for Android and iOS.

To enroll with the Zelle app, your recipient will enter their basic contact information, an email address and U.S. mobile number, and a Visa® or Mastercard® debit card with a U.S. based account (does not include U.S. territories). Zelle does not accept debit cards associated with international deposit accounts or any credit cards.

8. How does Zelle work?

When you enroll with Zelle through the Renasant Bank app, the name of your bank and the email address or U.S. mobile number you enrolled is shared with Zelle (no sensitive account details are shared – those stay with Renasant Bank). When someone sends money to your enrolled email address or U.S. mobile number, Zelle looks up the email address or mobile number in its "directory" and notifies Renasant Bank of the incoming payment. Renasant Bank then directs the payment into your bank account, all while keeping your sensitive account details private.

9. Can I use Zelle internationally?

In order to use Zelle, the sender and recipient's bank accounts must be based in the U.S.

10. Can I cancel a payment?

Currently, a payment cannot be cancelled. However, if the person you sent money to hasn't yet enrolled with Zelle, the payment will expire after 14 days. To check whether the payment is still pending because the recipient hasn't yet enrolled, you can review the transaction on the Activity page in Zelle.

If the person you sent money to has already enrolled with Zelle, the money is sent directly to their bank account and cannot be canceled. This is why it's important to only send money to people you know and trust, and always ensure you've used the correct email address or U.S. mobile number when sending money.

If you sent money to the wrong person, we recommend contacting the recipient and requesting the money back. If you aren't able to get your money back, please call us at Renasant Bank so we can help you.

11. How long does it take to receive money with Zelle?

Money sent with Zelle is typically available to an enrolled person within minutes¹. Ask your friends and family to enroll with Zelle before you send them money – this will help them get your payment more quickly.

If you send money to someone who isn't enrolled with Zelle, they will receive a notification prompting them to enroll. After enrollment, it may take between 1 and 3 business days for your recipient to receive their first payment. This is a security feature of Zelle designed to protect you when you're sending or receiving money with Zelle. Once their first payment completes, your recipient will be able to receive future payments faster, typically within minutes¹.

If it has been more than three days, we recommend confirming that the person you sent money to has enrolled with Zelle and that you entered the correct email address or U.S. mobile phone number. If you're waiting to receive money, you should check to see if you've received a payment notification via email or text message. If you haven't received a payment notification, we recommend following up with the sender to confirm they entered the correct email address or U.S. mobile phone number.

12. How will the person I sent money to be notified?

The person receiving the money will be able to see the activity posted in the Zelle section of the Renasant Mobile Banking App and in their deposit account.

13. Is my information secure?

Keeping your money and information safe is a top priority for Renasant Bank. When you use Zelle within our mobile app or online banking, your information is protected with the same technology we use to keep your bank account safe.

14. I'm unsure about using Zelle to pay someone I don't know. What should I do?

If you don't know the person, or aren't sure you will get what you paid for (for example, items bought from an on-line bidding or sales site), you should not use Zelle for these types of transactions.

These transactions are potentially high risk (just like sending cash to a person you don't know is high risk). Neither Zelle nor Renasant Bank offer a protection program for any purchase or sale conducted using Zelle.

15. What if I get an error message when I try to enroll an email address or U.S. mobile number?
